Faith Like a Child

In many ways, Ansley Pedersen is no different than any other 9-year-old. She loves to draw, play with friends and spend time with family. But with a simple, sweet idea on a typical summer day, Ansley began one amazing caper.

She told her mom, Olivia, "My friend and I want to draw pictures to sell so we can raise money to help the poor!" Olivia encouraged Ansley to find an organization that helped care for and support those in need, and together they found Miracle Hill. Just by drawing pictures, Ansley and her friend raised over twenty dollars. Knowing that her efforts made a difference, she decided to do something bigger: host a bake sale at church!

Ansley's idea stirred excitement in the whole Pedersen family. Before long, she and her siblings, Emma Ruth, Bear and Stella—as well as other families from their church—were baking and selling cookies, brownies, caramel apples, cakes... even hot chocolate with marshmallows! The children, parents and volunteers worked so hard, by the time all the goodies were sold, they raised five hundred seventy-six dollars!

With one simple idea, Ansley and her friends worked a miracle. And it's all because they remembered something we as adults tend to forget: that we are on an extraordinary mission on this earth. Regardless of age, income or any other factors that tend to hold us back, we are called to something bigger than ourselves—to spread the love and hope of Jesus Christ. To care for those in need. To use whatever means God has given us to make an eternal difference.

Ansley may never know how her gift changed lives. She may never meet the homeless man who found shelter on a cold winter's night, or the single mom finally able to feed her children a hot meal. She may never see the smile on the orphan's face who feels loved for the first time. All Ansley knows is God called her to do something great, and she obeyed. To other children or adults who desire to bring hope to the hopeless, let Ansley's words encourage you: "If this excites you, go and do it too! Sometimes it's hard, but do your best. It is working for God and that is what is most important about life. Follow the Lord and he will lead you!" May we all walk in this same beautiful faith.

Renewal Center Garden

Residents at the Renewal Center have revitalized the raised bed garden under the guidance of volunteer Phyllis Thomerson. The Renewal Center garden produces vegetables and cut flowers for the center and serves to educate participants in basic gardening skills. Mrs. Thomerson applied for grant funding this past summer and was recently awarded $500.00 from the Greater Greenville Master Gardeners Association. The funding will be used to purchase garden equipment, benches and supplies. For more information, please contact Phyllis Thomerson ppthomerson@gmail.com.

Many thanks to Phyllis and the Greater Greenville Master Gardeners Association!

New Year's Resolution?

-- by Reid Lehman

My friend Ray Schroeder is great at setting and achieving specific goals each year. An older friend, Puritan pastor and theologian Jonathan Edwards, is known for his resolutions from the early 1700's, including:

- Resolved, to live with all my might, while I do live.
- Resolved, to endeavor to obtain for myself as much happiness, in the other world, as I possibly can, with all the power; might, vigor, and vehemence. . . I am capable of. . . .
- Resolved, to be endeavoring to find out fit objects of charity and liberality.

Our Board and MHM leadership team regularly reassess goals and priorities. Here are a few:

- Increase the families recruited and under Miracle Hill's supervision from 100 to 150 foster families. Strategic partnerships with churches are moving us rapidly toward that goal.
- Relocate our Foster Care licensing specialists and Family Strengthening staff to a central location to better support our foster families across eight counties.
- Ensure that older children aging out of foster care have a mentor, assistance with educational needs, effective work skills and transportation.
- Expand our Family Strengthening program to serve at least 50 families this year - returning children home sooner and helping other families keep their children.

- Partnering with Greenville Literacy Association and the Adult Learning Center to ensure that our clients have access to literacy, GED training and workforce preparation.
- Continue the success experienced in the Tent City collaboration by supporting other key providers to achieve collaborative homeless priorities for the community, including:
  - o Expanded hours and routes for public transportation.
  - o More supportive housing with case management for homeless mentally ill.
  - o More shelter beds for families.

2 Chronicles 26 tells us that God helped King Uzziah marvelously until he was strong. "But when he was strong, he grew proud, to his destruction" ESV. In our 78th year of service, Miracle Hill is the Upstate's largest provider of shelter, food and hope to homeless children and adults, with a Christ-centered, relationship driven approach that enables children, women and men to make a fresh start. We are strong and respected, and we will continue to seek God's direction and submit to His ways.

Miracle Hill exists that homeless men, women and children receive food and shelter with compassion, hear the Good News of Jesus Christ and become productive members of society.

Miracle-Working Elves

Lenora Cuddy

Lenora Cuddy has been a volunteer at Miracle Hill's Children Home for twenty-one years. But at Christmastime, she and her team become more than volunteers—they become Christmas elves.

Every year, Lenora and her team ask each child to create a wish list—up to $300 worth—of anything their hearts desire. She then takes those gift ideas and enlists the help of corporate sponsors to turn the kids' dreams into reality! Her volunteers work so hard to wrap gifts, shop sales (even braving the Black Friday crowds) and drive moving trucks to deliver the presents before Christmas Day.

Dressed as Santa, elves and reindeer, Lenora and her team excitedly shower the children with teddy bears, footballs, PlayStations and much more.

Notably in the past few years, celebrities like LeBron James and Paula Deen have donated items from signed pictures and jerseys to cookbooks and cookware. The Peace Center contributed tickets to The Phantom of the Opera. Even up to eighteen bicycles have been delivered, just so these kids can have the Christmas of their dreams.

Though Lenora works as an Environmental Health and Safety Officer, she wholeheartedly believes "the best part of who I am is this mission. This is who I really am. I only work because I have to; otherwise, these kids would get me full time."

Lenora's ministry to these children extends beyond the gifts themselves. Her goal is to demonstrate the love and compassion of Jesus to kids who may never have felt loved before.

She proclaims, "This ministry is not about me, it's about the community... in the spirit of "it takes a village to raise a child." I hope it goes on for 100 more years without me."

To help with this effort in the future, contact Lenora at createamiracle@aol.com.

Thank You

Many thanks to those of you that donated to the Over the Edge Fundraising event to support Reid and Charlie's efforts. You raised $22,371 towards Miracle Hill operations and $4,856 for the Overcomers Center!

The holidays can be a tough time for our clients so thank you to those that spread some Christmas cheer.

Also, thank you to those that made our Turkey Fry a success this year including our friends at WSSL 100, Ingles, Blossman, Costco, Five Guys, Tietex, Chick-fil-A, Bojangles, Rhinehart Foodservice, Broad River Electric, our Fry Team, and so many more. More than 800 turkeys were donated, over 600 were cooked, and 131 volunteers came out to help. We appreciate you!

Upcoming Events

Annual Spring Fundraising Banquet – March 17, 2015

Come out and support homeless men, women and children at 6:30pm at the TD Convention Center in Greenville. Guest speaker/performer Jimmy Wayne, author of Walk to Beautiful: The Power of Love and a Homeless Kid Who Found the Way, is a former foster child turned country music singer/songwriter whose songs and story highlight his mission to bring awareness to kids who age out of the foster system and become homeless.

Interim HealthCare Miracle Hill Challenge – June 6, 2015

Join us at Furman University for this family-friendly cycling and 5K event to help the homeless in the Upstate. Ride options include 100, 62, and 40 miles as well as a 20-mile option along the beautiful Swamp Rabbit Trail. In addition, a less strenuous 5k run/walk is available to encourage total family participation. Every participant will receive a personal fundraising page!

Please contact our Special Events Manager Sandy Furnell regarding either event at 864-631-0137 or sfurnell@miraclehill.org, or register online at www.MiracleHill.org.

Becoming a Lamplighter

For over 30 years, Miracle Hill's Lamplighters have poured hope and second chances on the children, women and men in our care. Lamplighters are monthly givers that support our mission to the hungry and hurting in the community. Approximately 516 Lamplighters generously give over $30,000 per month to our ministry. Besides their provision of income, Lamplighters also save Miracle Hill money on costs like printing and mailing, because our Lamplighters never receive solicitation appeals.

Would you consider becoming a monthly giver? This commitment requires a donation to Miracle Hill Ministries every month through an automatic bank or credit card draft, online donation through our website, or a check sent through mail.

If you have questions or commitments, please contact Greg Hynds at 864-631-0122 or ghynds@miraclehill.org. Maybe this year, the light of hope will shine in our clients' hearts because of you.
