MIRACLE HILL MINISTRIES WARNS PUBLIC OF FRAUDULENT SOLICITATIONS IN CHEROKEE COUNTY

Gaffney, SC (October 24, 2016) – In response to complaints of door-to-door solicitation being done by an individual claiming to represent Miracle Hill Ministries in Gaffney, the non-profit is urging the public to make donations directly to the Miracle Hill Rescue Mission – Cherokee County and to report any fraudulent solicitation to police.

“Someone has been going to several local businesses in Gaffney and fraudulently soliciting money on behalf of Miracle Hill Ministries. That is not how we ask for support,” said Andy Cooper, Director of Miracle Hill Rescue Mission—Cherokee County, known locally as the Harbor of Hope. “We do not send any of the men and women in our care to go out and solicit funds on our behalf.”

Miracle Hill Rescue Mission – Cherokee County is a 40-bed homeless shelter for men and women in Gaffney located at 227 Henderson St. Opened in the fall of 2000, the Mission has strong support locally with all funds donated in Cherokee County being used to support the shelter’s services and programs. Donations may also be made securely online at www.miraclehill.org .

“We want the community to know that door-to-door solicitation of cash is not how we operate, and I would encourage anyone to call or come by the mission if they have questions or concerns,” Cooper added. Cooper may be reached at 864.488.0376 or ncooper@miraclehill.org .

About Miracle Hill Ministries
