Concert For a Cause V to Benefit Miracle Hill Ministries

Greenville, SC. May 17, 2022- On Saturday, June 11, Jeff Lynch Appliances and TV Center will be hosting a free concert to benefit Miracle Hill Overcomers addiction recovery center. The classic rock 'n roll band, Concealed Damage, will be performing the greatest rock songs of all time, making Concert For a Cause V an opportunity you don't want to miss. The show will be from 7:00 P.M. to 10:00 P.M. at the parking lot of Jeff Lynch Appliance and TV Center, on Roper Mountain Road.

With the support of His Radio 89.3, WSPA, WYFF, Miracle Hill Ministries and Jeff Lynch Appliance & TV Center as sponsors, the event is guaranteed to be fun for the whole family. While the concert is free, donations are appreciated and will benefit Miracle Hill's addiction recovery program for men: Overcomers. All attendants are encouraged to bring a chair.

Mark and Sarah Lynch, members of the band, have a heart for the addiction recovery program, and additional to hosting regular charity events, Lynch's company hires Overcomers graduates build job skills and work experience. The Miracle Hill Overcomers program empower men to overcome addiction by using a Biblical adaptation of the 12-step recovery model. This program has one of the highest success rates in the nation, averaging 100 graduates annually. Men exiting the program also have the opportunity to move into transitional housing offered by the ministry. Transitional housing allows graduates to remain near jobs, transportation, and their supporting churches.

ABOUT MIRACLE HILL MINISTRIES

Miracle Hill Ministries is the Upstate's largest, most comprehensive provider of services to homeless children and adults. Serving the Upstate since 1937, Miracle Hill's programs include rescue shelters for the homeless, residential addiction recovery, transitional housing, and foster care. Miracle Hill's eight thrift stores provide employment opportunities for the community as well as former Miracle Hill guests.
