Miracle Hill Ministries Opens Extreme Weather Shelter

Greenville, SC. June 22, 2022- As part of Miracle Hill Ministries' commitment to the community, during the summer months the Greenville Rescue Mission has started providing extreme weather shelter for people experiencing homelessness. The shelter will offer this service on days when temperatures are projected at 95 degrees or above. The gym will be open from 1:00-5:00 p.m., providing cold water and snacks. Individuals will have access to the bathrooms and will also find chairs and mats to rest.

The Greenville Rescue Mission located at 575 W Washington street in Greenville, will house up to 100 people in the gym during this hot weather season. Until further notice, this will be the only Miracle Hill shelter offering this service.
