How to be more intentional this Thanksgiving?
Be a part of The Ellis & Bradley Turkey Fry for Miracle Hill Ministries

SPARTANBURG, SC (October 17, 2022) – For the 16th consecutive year, Miracle Hill Ministries will be hosting the Ellis & Bradley Turkey Fry for Miracle Hill, the largest community feeding in the Upstate. On Tuesday, November 22nd, the community will get together at the Spartanburg Rescue Mission to feed more than 5,000 adults and children.

Participants will feel firsthand the gratitude of the people receiving meals. Kicking off with this event, Miracle Hill will feed approximately 100,000 meals over the holiday season. This will be a humbling, yet rewarding, experience for all involved. “Each year we fry hundreds of turkeys and distribute them across the Upstate. In a very real sense, we get to be Jesus’ hands and feet while letting the people know that they have a friend in the world.” said Ryan Duerk, President and CEO.

Miracle Hill is inviting the public to donate frozen turkeys. Donations may be dropped off Friday, November 11th from 1:00 pm - 4:00 pm and Saturday, November 12th, from 10:00 am-2:00 pm at either the Food Warehouse (725 Keith Drive, Greenville, SC) or to the Spartanburg Rescue Mission (189 N Forest Drive, Spartanburg, SC.) Donors may also purchase items from an Amazon Wish List and have them shipped directly to the ministry. Financial contributions can be made through miraclehill.org, to help provide for the ongoing care of the guests living in the shelters.

Thanksgiving dinners will be provided at Miracle Hill’s four homeless shelters and two recovery programs, and turkeys will be distributed to Miracle Hill foster families. Miracle Hill is also partnering with several community ministries and organizations in Greenville and Spartanburg Counties with the goal of distributing meals to low-income neighborhoods and additional people in need.
