New Date: Monday November 20th
The 17th Annual Ellis & Bradley Turkey Fry for Miracle Hill
Re-scheduled Due to Rain

SPARTANBURG, SC (November 14, 2023) – Due to inclement weather, The Ellis & Bradley Turkey Fry for Miracle Hill has been rescheduled for Monday November 20th. Ryan Duerk, Miracle Hill's CEO, stated: "We have fed the community on Thanksgiving week for 16 years and we won't let the rain stop us this year." The event will continue to take place at the Spartanburg Rescue Mission.

This is the largest community feeding in the Upstate, serving more than 5,000 adults and children during the Holiday week. Thanksgiving dinners will still be provided at Miracle Hill's four homeless shelters and two recovery programs, and turkeys will be distributed to Miracle Hill foster families. The ministry is also partnering with Salvation Army, New Life Baptist Church, Sammy's Mission, Miller Place and Upstate Circle of Friends to distribute meals to low-income neighborhoods and additional people in need.

The ministry is asking Turkey Fry volunteers and sponsors to be patient and be on the lookout for further communication with scheduling details. This event would not be possible without the contributions and support from the community.

For more information about the event, visit miraclehill.org/turkeyfry or send an email to events@miraclehill.org or cmassey@miraclehill.org
